Schedule. Attend classes full time or part time, weekdays or weekends, day or evening.

Location. Study on the main campus or attend classes off campus in the City of Danville, Halifax County and Pittsylvania County. As a distance learning student, take classes entirely online, check out class videos, or study independently.

Carrington Child Development Center. Leave your child with a reliable child care professional in a modern learning environment, while you attend classes. Families First Child Development Center is located on the main campus and accepts children from age two months. The facility, which serves as a training lab for Early Childhood Education majors, is fully accredited and rated by the Virginia Star Quality Initiative (VSQI).
Small classes. Individualized attention is one benefit of small class sizes. College personnel can offer reassurance and guidance to students who are having difficulty with their studies or need help navigating the college campus.

Tuition. Realize the value of an affordably-priced, quality education. A full-time Virginia resident taking 12 credits per semester can attend DCC for less than $2,500 per year. Contact the Admissions Office for current tuition rates.

Financial aid. Explore the variety of scholarships, grants, loans, work-study and other options to help finance a college education. Last year, more than $700,000 in scholarships was awarded.

Need a place to relax, unwind, meet friends, study or play a game? The 86-acre campus has lots of quiet spaces. The Student Center, which houses the Castle Café, conference room, and the Veterans Affairs Office, also provides an informal environment to study or just hang out.
Experienced, caring faculty. Learn from professors who are experts in their field and know their students by name. Seventy-two percent of DCC’s full-time faculty hold doctorate or master’s degrees.

Workforce Services. Update skills and find a fulfilling career in the business world. Many of the workforce services programs are housed at the Regional Center for Advanced Technology and Training (RCATT) facility located at 120 Slayton Avenue in Danville’s Cyber Park.

Barkhouser Free Enterprise Center. Workshops, seminars and resources on enterprising and entrepreneurial topics are available to students, alumni and the community. The Center is located in the Taylor Building on the main campus.

Counseling. Match personal interests to courses of study. Counselors are available to help you get started in a program of study. An academic advisor will assist with the selection of classes in a program of study.

Tutoring. DCC has a Level I internationally-certified tutor training program, certified by the College Reading and Learning Association (CRLA). Tutoring services are offered FREE of charge to students.
Veterans Affairs. Are you a veteran? You will want to stop by the Veterans Affairs Office on campus. Programs of study (including Career Studies Certificates) are approved by the Virginia Department of Education and the Veterans Administration for payment of veteran's educational benefits. The office also is a one-stop place for information on benefits, support services, networking and job resources.

Transfer. DCC offers students more than the opportunity to earn a degree, diploma or certificate. The College provides a gateway for transfer to four-year colleges and universities. Through the Virginia Community College System’s state-wide negotiated agreements, eligible graduates are guaranteed admission to many of Virginia’s four-year institutions. DCC also has agreements with other colleges and universities and will assist students in facilitating the transfer. There are also scholarships and grants available to graduates who transfer to a four-year college or university.

Career Center. Services are available to students who desire to secure part-time or full-time employment while attending college or after graduation. The Center provides occupational information, resume writing assistance and interviewing techniques. The career services website for students, alumni, and employers lists available jobs. (See www.dcc.vccs.edu/CareerCenter/career_center.htm) If you are undecided about career options, take advantage of a variety of career assessments. The annual Career and Networking Fair is a very popular resource for DCC students, alumni and employers.
