DCC Upward Bound Application and Selection Process Information

1. Interested students pick up an Application Packet from their high school counselor office or DCC Upward Bound Office located at Danville Community College EIT Building, Room #4.

2. Parents and students fill out the application packet and return forms to the Upward Bound office.

3. Students give the Teacher Recommendation Forms to three of their teachers to fill out and return to the Upward Bound office.

4. After students receive confirmation (usually a letter) of approved application, students contact the Upward Bound office to schedule an interview.

5. Upward Bound staff members interview both the student and the parent to confirm the student’s program interest and receive information of program expectations.

6. Once all application materials have been completed, application approved, and student and parent completed the interview process, the student and parent is notified of Program acceptance.

7. Students admitted into DCC Upward Bound Program will receive additional instructions on how to begin their enrollment immediately.

8. All new program students are placed on a 30-day probationary period or until participation level has reached satisfactory standing before receiving full program benefits (i.e. travel, money, Upward Bound accessories, etc.)
